Dear Ben:

First Scully, then Craig, and now you. When the dust--now literal, now figurative--finally settles, I wonder who I will be working for.

The nine enclosed letters have recently arrived at my desk.

All is well with me and I trust that all is well with you.

Sincerely,

S. Robert Powell

Dear Edwin:

Steven called me shortly after you left last night and I spoke with him about the idea of teaching you to run a printing press and procuring same. S agrees that it is a fine idea but states that a used press such as the latest issue of Northeastern Pennsylvania was printed on will cost about $10,000. I assured him that money is no object - if you get state money then federal historical preservation money is sure to follow. Contributions from private individuals of wealth such as myself will make up any additional lack of funds.

S also had another wonderful idea. He would love to print an issue in sepia tones copying the original texts and photographs as they are. The obstacle is that it would cost a fortune to print and take eons of time. I suggested that maybe this type printing should be done for an anniversary or other special issue. It is something to think about.

I am looking forward to our next meeting for tea, etc.

Much love,

Amelia

P.S. Another thought is a donation of an old press by Duplex as a tax write-off. I will speak with S about that. Might be nice for them since they have just spent 2 million dollars for the new press to be delivered next year. John Wolfe signed the check for the new press yesterday. A few lunches or dinner parties with the right people may do it. Will speak with Joyce.

Dear S. Robert,

I want to thank-you for your hospitality when I last stayed at your apartment in N.Y.C.

I want you to know that it means so much to me to become a member of your family. I have always felt the closeness that Donald feels for his family, I feel special to be part of that now.

I hope that we can share in the future, that Donald and I can show you our love by having you near to us. I think that you and DWP's being close really adds a balance to the situation and that energy feels good to me.

Donald has been my wonderful friend and now we are going to be married and live together. I love you for having such a brother like Donald.

CLINTON TOWERS HOUSING CO., INC.

Landlord,

TO

Joseph T. King Tenant,

Lease

Apartment No. 33-14

Rent $ 2,520. per annum

Rent $ 210. per month

APARTMENT LEASE

Agreement of Lease, made as of the 3RD day of MARCH, 1975, between CLINTON TOWERS HOUSING CO., INC., (hereinafter referred to as "Landlord"), a non-profit housing company, organized and existing under the Limited Profit Housing Companies Law of the State of New York (hereinafter referred to as the "Law"), having an office at 221 West 57 Street, New York, N.Y. and Joseph T. King (hereinafter referred to as "Tenant"), residing at 442 W. 54th St., NYC 10019

Witnesseth: that Landlord hereby leases to Tenant and Tenant hereby hires and takes from Landlord the apartment known as apartment No. 33-14 (hereinafter referred to as the "demised premises"), on the 3RD floor in the building located on 11th Ave., between 54th and 55th Street, Borough of Manhattan, City and State of New York, (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Development") to be used and occupied as a strictly private dwelling apartment by Tenant and such persons as are listed and approved on the apartment application submitted in connection with this lease, and not otherwise for a term to commence on the 1ST day of MARCH, 1975, or thirty days after notice is sent to Tenant at the above address stating that the demised premises are ready for occupancy, whichever is later (provided that said term shall in any event commence no later than the date on which the Tenant occupies the demised premises), and to terminate on the 31ST day of MARCH, 1978 (unless such term shall sooner cease and expire or to be terminated as hereinafter provided), at the annual rent of $2,520.- Dollars, plus any and all surcharges made in accordance with Tenant's family income, pursuant to the Law and the Rules and Regulations of the Housing and Development Administration of The City of New York (hereinafter referred to as the "H D A"), (plus any and all rent increases granted by order of the H D A pursuant to the Law) and plus any and all other charges under the terms of this lease, all of which are deemed to be additional rent hereunder. Tenant agrees to pay the rent and any and all additional rent in equal monthly installments in advance, promptly and without further notice or billing, on the first day of each month during said term, at the office of Landlord or such other place as Landlord may designate, without any setoff or deduction whatsoever except that Tenant shall pay the first full monthly installment on or before the commencement date hereof. If the demised premises are rented from a day other than the first day of the month, the Landlord may send a bill, in such a manner and under such circumstances as he alone may determine, requiring the Tenant to pay the rent for such portion of the month in advance on the first day or any following month and that thereafter the rent shall become due and payable on the 1st day of each and every month in advance. With respect to any portion of a month occurring at the beginning or end of the term of this lease, Tenant shall pay rent at the rate of 1/30th of such monthly rental for each day of such portion.

The parties hereto, for themselves, their heirs, distributees, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, hereby covenant, as follows:

Rent 1. Tenant shall pay the rent and additional rent as above and hereinafter provided.

Occupancy 2. Tenant shall not use the demised premises or any part thereof or suffer the same to be used for any purpose other than as a private dwelling apartment, nor by any persons other than those listed and approved on the application submitted in connection with this lease.

Representations by Tenant 3. Tenant represents and warrants the accuracy of all statements made in the application submitted in connection with this lease and in any report of income made by or on behalf of Tenant or any statement of family income or family composition and it shall be a default under this lease if any statement contained therein shall prove inaccurate at any time. Tenant shall notify Landlord of any change in family income or family composition as it occurs and shall comply with all requests for information thereof, a breach of which obligation shall be deemed a default hereunder. If at any time during the term hereof Tenant shall be found ineligible for occupancy by reason of excess income or otherwise, and Tenant is so notified by Landlord, then, and in that event, this lease shall thereupon cease and terminate and Tenant shall vacate and surrender the demised premises.

Assignment, etc. 4. Tenant and Tenant's heirs, distributees, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, shall not sell, assign, transfer, mortgage or encumber this lease, or underlet the demised premises or any part thereof or use or permit the demised premises or any part thereof to be used by others without the previous written consent of Landlord and the approval of the H D A. If this lease be assigned, or if the demised premises or any part thereof be underlet or occupied by anybody other than Tenant, Landlord may, after default by Tenant, collect rent from the assignee, under-tenant or occupant, and apply the net amount collected to the rent herein reserved, but no such assignment, underletting, occupancy or collection shall be deemed a waiver of this covenant, or the acceptance of the assignee, under-tenant or occupant as a tenant, or a release of Tenant from the performance by Tenant of covenants on the part of Tenant herein contained. Even though Landlord shall consent to, and the H D A shall approve, an assignment hereof, no further assignment shall be made without the express consent in writing of Landlord and the approval of the H D A. The character of the occupancy in the demised premises, as above expressed, is a special consideration and inducement for the granting of this lease by Landlord to Tenant, and in the event of violation by Tenant of the restriction against subletting or assignment, or if premises are not in continuous, bona fide use as the principal residence of Tenant and persons listed and approved on the application submitted in connection with this lease, or if Tenant shall cease to occupy the apartment or permit the same to be occupied by others or violate any other restriction or condition herein imposed, this lease may, at the option of Landlord, be terminated in the manner hereinafter provided.

Repairs, Alterations and Surrender 5. Throughout the term, Tenant shall take good care of the demised premises, its appurtenances, fixtures and equipment and shall suffer no waste or injury thereto; shall not drill into, disfigure or deface any part of the demised premises or the Development, or suffer same to be done. Landlord may repair, at the expense of Tenant, all damage or injury to the demised premises or to the Development, or to its fixtures, appurtenances or equipment, done by Tenant or Tenant's family, guests, servants, employees, agents, visitors or licensees, or caused by moving property of Tenant in and/or out of the building, or by installation or removal of furniture or other property, or resulting from fire, air-conditioning unit or system, short circuits, overflow or leakage of water, steam, illuminating gas, sewer gas, sewerage or odors, or by frost or by bursting or leaking of pipes or plumbing works, or gas, or from any other cause, due to carelessness, negligence, or improper conduct of Tenant or Tenant's family, guests, servants, employees, agents, visitors or licensees. Tenant will not do or permit to be done any repairs, alterations, additions, improvements, painting, decorating or wallpapering in or about the demised premises without the written consent of Landlord. All such alterations, additions or improvements shall become the property of Landlord upon installation, unless Landlord shall elect otherwise, which election shall be made by giving Tenant notice at least five days prior to the expiration or other termination of this lease. In the event Landlord shall elect otherwise, then such alterations, additions or improvements, as Landlord shall elect, shall be removed by Tenant and Tenant shall restore the demised premises to the original condition, at Tenant's own cost and expense, prior to the expiration of the term or other termination of this lease. Any mechanic's lien filed against the demised premises, or the Development, for work claimed to have been done for, or materials claimed to have been furnished to, Tenant, shall be discharged by Tenant within 10 days thereafter at Tenant's expense, by filing the bond required by law. At the end of the term, or sooner, termination as provided herein, Tenant shall quit and surrender the demised premises, broom clean, in as good order and condition as it was at the beginning of the term, reasonable wear and use excepted. If the demised premises be not so surrendered, Tenant shall make good to Landlord all damage which Landlord shall suffer by reason thereof, and will indemnify Landlord against all claims made by any succeeding tenant against Landlord founded upon delay by Landlord in delivering possession of the premises to such succeeding tenant, so far as such delay is occasioned by failure of Tenant so to surrender the premises.

Security 6. Tenant has on deposit with Landlord the sum of $ 210, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, as security for the payment of rent and the performance of the covenants and conditions of this lease. In the event that Tenant complies with such covenants and conditions and surrenders the demised premises as herein required at the expiration of the term of this lease, the said sum shall thereupon be returned to Tenant 30 days after said surrender of the demised premises. In the event Tenant defaults in respect of any of the terms, provisions and conditions of this lease, including, but not limited to, the payment of rent, additional rent and other charges, Landlord may use, apply or retain the whole or any part of the security so deposited to the extent required for the payment of any rent, additional rent or other charges or any other sum as to which Tenant is in default or for any sum which Landlord may expend or may be required to expend by reason of Tenant's default, including, but not limited to, any damages or deficiency in the reletting of the demised premises, whether such damages or deficiency accrued before or after summary proceedings or other reentry by Landlord. Tenant covenants that it will not assign or encumber or attempt to assign or encumber the monies deposited herein as security and that neither Landlord nor its successors or assigns shall be bound by any such assignment, encumbrance, attempted assignment or attempted encumbrance. Until further notice to Tenant, security shall remain on deposit in an interest-bearing bank account.

Requirements of Laws 7. Tenant shall comply with all present and future rules, orders, regulations or requirements of the New York Board of Fire Underwriters or other similar body, and shall not do or permit to be done in or upon the demised premises or bring or keep anything therein which will increase the rate of such insurance. A schedule or make-up of the insurance rate issued by the New York Fire Insurance Exchange or any similar body shall conclusively establish the items and charges constituting the insurance rate from time to time applicable to the property of which the demised premises forms a part. Tenant, at its sole expense, shall comply with all laws, orders, directives, rules and regulations now in force or as hereafter amended or modified of any governmental authority having jurisdiction over the demised premises, with respect to the demised premises or the use or occupation thereof, and shall not do or permit to be done any act or thing upon the demised premises in violation thereof or which may subject Landlord to any liability or responsibility for injuries or damages to any person or persons or property or to any penalty or which will invalidate or be in conflict with any fire or other insurance policies covering the property of which the demised premises forms a part.

Indemnity 8. Tenant shall indemnify Landlord against, save Landlord harmless from and reimburse Landlord for, any and all damages, expenses, (including counsel fees), fines or penalties, injury or liability to any person or persons or property, occasioned wholly or in part by any act or omission of Tenant, Tenant's family, guests, servants, employees, agents, sub-tenants or licensees or due to non-performance of or non-compliance with or breach of or failure to observe any term, covenant or condition of this lease upon Tenant's part to be kept, observed, performed or complied with.

Landlord's Right to Perform: Fees and Expenses 9. If Tenant shall default in the performance of any covenant on Tenant's part to be performed hereunder, Landlord may, but shall not be obligated to, perform same for the account of Tenant at any time thereafter, without notice to Tenant. Any sum of money expended by Landlord and any expenses incurred by Landlord by reason thereof (including reasonable counsel fees) shall be deemed to be additional rent to be paid by Tenant to Landlord on the first day of the month following such payments or expenditures.

Rules and Regulations 10. Tenant and Tenant's family, guests, servants, employees, agents, licensees and visitors shall comply with all of the Rules and Regulations set forth at the end of this lease and such other and further rules and regulations as Landlord may hereafter from time to time deem necessary or desirable and may prescribe for the safety, care, cleanliness and reputation of the demised premises, or all or any part of the Development or for the comfort and convenience of Tenant or other tenants of the Development. Tenant and Tenant's family, guests, servants, employees, agents, licensees and visitors shall at all times conduct themselves in and about the demised premises and the Development in a manner which shall be free from annoyance to other tenants in the same or neighboring buildings or elsewhere in the Development to the end that other tenants in the

GUARANTY

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, and in consideration for, and as an inducement to Landlord to enter into the foregoing lease, the undersigned jointly and severally hereby unconditionally guaranty to Landlord, its successors and assigns the payment of the rent, additional rent and other sums payable by Tenant pursuant to said lease and the full performance and observance by Tenant of all the other terms, covenants, conditions and agreements therein provided to be performed and observed by Tenant without requiring any notice of non-payment, non-performance or non-observance, or proof of notice or demand, whereby to charge the undersigned, all of which the undersigned hereby expressly waive, and the undersigned expressly agree that this guaranty shall not be terminated, affected or impaired in any way or manner whatsoever by reason of the assertion by Landlord against Tenant of any of the rights or remedies reserved to Landlord pursuant to the provisions of said lease, or by reason of summary or other proceedings against Tenant, or by the omission of Landlord to enforce any of its rights against Tenant, or by reason of any extensions of time or indulgences granted by Landlord to Tenant. The undersigned further covenant and agree that this guaranty shall remain and continue in full force and effect as to any renewal, extension or modification of said lease. Further, the undersigned covenant and agree that in any action or proceeding brought by either Landlord or the undersigned against the other on any matters whatsoever arising out of, under or by virtue of the terms of said lease or of this guaranty, the undersigned shall and do hereby waive trial by jury.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. No alterations, additions or improvements to the balconies or terraces of the demised premises or the railings thereof, including but not limited to the painting thereof, the installation of screens or other enclosures thereon, the installation of electric fixtures thereon, the painting of the underside of the terrace or balcony above the demised premises or otherwise, shall be made without Landlord's prior written consent.

2. The sidewalks, entrances, passages, courts, elevators, vestibules, stairways, corridors and halls must not be obstructed or encumbered or used for any purpose other than ingress and egress to and from the demised premises.

3. No sign, advertisement, notice or other lettering shall be exhibited, inscribed, painted or affixed by Tenant on any part of the outside or inside of the demised premises or building without the prior written consent of Landlord.

4. No awnings, aerial, or other projections shall be attached to the outside walls of the building, or to the balconies or terraces and no blinds, shades or screens shall be attached to or hung in, or used in connection with, any window or door of the demised premises, without the prior written consent of Landlord.

5. No baby carriages, velocipedes, bicycles or any other similar articles shall be allowed in elevators nor allowed to stand in the halls, passageways, areas or courts of the building.

6. Children shall not play in the public halls, stairways, elevators or any of the exterior landscaped areas, except those areas designated by Landlord as play areas.

7. Supplies, goods and packages of every kind shall be delivered only at the entrance provided therefor, or in such manner as Landlord may provide: Landlord shall not be responsible for the loss or damage of any such property whether or not left in the custody of Landlord's employees.

8. The laundry and drying apparatus provided in the Development shall be used in such manner and at such times as Landlord may direct. Tenant shall not dry or air clothes on the roof, balcony or terrace.

9. Landlord may retain a pass key to the demised premises. Tenant shall not alter any lock or install a new lock or a knocker on any door of the demised premises without the written consent of Landlord. In case such consent is given, Tenant shall provide Landlord with an additional key for the use of Landlord pursuant to Landlord's right of access to the demised premises.

10. Tenant shall not allow anything whatever to fall from the windows or doors of the demised premises, nor shall sweep or throw from the demised premises any dirt or other substance into any of the corridors or halls, elevators, ventilators or elsewhere in the building.

11. No garbage cans, ice, milk bottles, mats or other articles shall be placed in the halls or on the staircase landings, nor shall anything be hung from the windows, terraces or balconies, or placed upon the window sills. Nor shall any linens, cloths, clothing, curtains, rugs or mops be shaken or hung from or on any of the windows, doors, balconies or terraces.

12. Tenant shall not make or permit any disturbing noises in the building by himself, his family, servants, employees, agents, visitors, and licensees, nor do or permit anything by such persons that will interfere with the rights, comforts or convenience of the other tenants. Tenant shall not play, or suffer to be played, any musical instrument or operate or suffer to be operated a phonograph, television or radio in the demised premises between the hours of eleven P.M. and the following eight A.M. if the same shall disturb or annoy other occupants of the building. Tenant shall not give vocal or instrumental instruction in the demised premises at any time.

13. No radio or television installation shall be made without the written consent of Landlord. Any aerial erected on the roof, balcony, terrace or exterior walls of the building without the consent of Landlord, in writing, may be removed by Landlord without notice at the expense of Tenant.

14. No animals of any kind shall be kept or harbored in the demised premises.

15. Tenant will faithfully observe the following procedures with respect to the use of the incinerator: (a) wrap dust, floor and powdered waste in compact packages before depositing the same; (b) thoroughly drain and wrap in paper all garbage before depositing the same; (c) refrain from forcing large bundles into the flue; (d) crush into tight bundles all loose papers before placing the same in the hopper door; (e) cause all bundles of waste to slide out of the hopper into the flue; (f) refrain from depositing waste of an explosive nature therein.

16. The water-closets and other plumbing fixtures shall not be used for any purpose other than those for which they were constructed, nor shall any sweepings, rubbish, rags nor any other improper articles be thrown into the same; and the cost of repairing any damage resulting from misuse thereof shall be borne by Tenant by whom or upon whose premises it shall have been caused.

17. No servants or employees of Landlord shall be employed by Tenant at any time for any purpose.

18. Tenant shall reimburse or compensate Landlord for any damage or injuries to the grounds or to trees, shrubs and plants in the Development, caused by any member of his family, servants, employees, agents, visitors and licensees.

19. Tenant and Tenant's family, guests, servants, employees, agents, visitors or licensees shall not at any time or for any reason whatsoever enter upon or attempt to enter upon the roof of the building.

20. Tenant and Tenant's family, his servants, employees, agents, visitors and licensees shall not park any automobile or other vehicle in any of the parking areas reserved for tenants of the Development unless Tenant shall have leased space for parking in such area, in which case Tenant shall have the right to park Tenant's automobile in such space in accordance with the provisions of Tenant's lease of such space.

21. Tenant shall move into the demised premises only at a day and hour approved in advance by Landlord. Landlord shall not be liable for any costs, expenses or damages incurred by Tenant in moving in, whether by reason of delays or otherwise.

CLINTON TOWERS INC.
AGREEMENT EXTENDING LEASE

1. It is mutually agreed, this 1st day of Feb 1978 between CLINTON TOWERS INC. as LANDLORD, and G. King & S. Robert Russell as TENANT, that the lease heretofore entered into between the parties under date of 1st Feb 1978, for the rental of apartment 33H, in the premises 790 11 Ave in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, for a term which expires March 31, 1978, shall be extended to March 31, 1981, namely, for a further term of three (3) years upon the same terms and conditions stated in aforesaid lease.

2. The parties agree that except as herein provided, this extension agreement and the aforesaid lease contain all of the terms, conditions, and agreements between said parties, with the same force and effect as if said lease, as herein modified and extended, were included in this agreement, and were originally made a part hereof.

3. The Tenant also agrees that the original lease is extended herein and the obligation of Tenant to pay rent hereunder and to perform all of the other terms and agreements contained in said lease and this extension agreement, shall in no way be affected, impaired, or excused because Landlord is unable to supply or is delayed in supplying any services, or is unable to make or is delayed in making any repairs, additions, alterations, or decorations, or is unable to supply or is delayed in supplying any equipment or fixtures, if the Landlord is prevented or delayed from so doing by reason of governmental pre-emption, orders, rules or regulations which are promulgated by any department or subdivision of any agency, or by reason of the conditions of supply and demand, or by reason of any delay caused by the tenant.

4. It is agreed that there is no obligation of the Landlord hereunder, until this agreement has been signed by the Landlord or the Landlord's agent and delivered to the Tenant.

From the Artist...
Gustavo Novoa

I was born in Valparaiso, Chile and after some attempts at structured careers, I left for Paris at nineteen. In the beginning I sold paintings on the street, but things have gotten much better since and I have lived happily in New York for many years.

Documented reality is something I avoid when it comes to my art. The jungle creatures I paint are part of my own utopian fantasy—the only way they can resist the challenge of our changing world. My lions, zebras, tigers, elephants, monkeys, panthers and rhinos are deprived of their ferocity and seem to observe the observer with wise and amiable tolerance. My animals are positive and hopeful, reflect my own attitude toward pe

I want my paintings to bring love, peace and awareness to a world in much need of it. Therefore, my desire is to reach as large an audience as possible through my art

SONS start out to be like this--

They don't go much for TALKING,

They try your patience
and your nerves
When they first discover
WALKING--

And then their LEGS grow LONGER
And their TEETH are full of SPACES.

Then they reach the CLUMSY
STAGE
And set a FUZZY
CHIN,

They get BLACK and BLUE and DIRTY KNEES
and FACES--

They start in DATING,

talk of SPORTS,

'And hope their teams will win) --

And when you're sure they'll never start

To LOOK the way they SHOULD,

You see they've turned into a MAN,

The kind you hoped they would -- yes, sons are really WONDERFUL,

And pretty SPECIAL,
too--

But other folks
can't know

HOW NICE

Because they don't have YOU!

Happy Birthday!

Happy Always!

Best wishes

Dad and Mom

GENERAL MOTORS ACCEPTANCE CORPORATION
TWENTY-ONE YEAR 5% DEBENTURE DUE 1981
DUE MARCH 15, 1981

This Debenture is one of a duly authorized issue of debentures of the Company, designated as its Twenty-One Year 5% Debentures Due 1981 (herein referred to as the "Debentures") of an aggregate principal amount of $100,000,000, issued under and pursuant to an Indenture dated March 15, 1960 (herein referred to as the "Indenture"), duly executed and delivered by the Company to Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York, Trustee. Reference is hereby made to the Indenture and all indentures supplemental thereto for a description of the rights, limitations of rights, obligations, duties and immunities thereunder of the Trustee, the Company and the holders of the Debentures and coupons.

In case an Event of Default, as defined in the Indenture, shall have occurred and be continuing, the principal hereof may be declared, and upon such declaration shall become, due and payable in the manner, with the effect, and subject to the conditions, provided in the Indenture.

The Indenture contains provisions permitting the Company and the Trustee, with the consent of the holders of not less than 66 2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Debentures at the time outstanding, evidenced as in the Indenture provided, to execute supplemental indentures adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of the Indenture or any supplemental indentures or modifying in any manner the rights of the holders of the Debentures and coupons; provided, however, that no such supplemental indentures shall (i) extend the fixed maturity of any Debentures, or reduce the principal amount thereof, or reduce the rate or extend the time of payment of interest thereon, without the consent of the holder of each Debenture so affected, or (ii) reduce the aforesaid percentage of Debentures, the consent of the holders of which is required for any such supplemental indentures, without the consent of the holders of all Debentures then outstanding.

No reference herein to the Indenture and no provision of this Debenture or of the Indenture shall alter or impair the obligation of the Company, which is absolute and unconditional, to pay the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on this Debenture at the place, at the respective times, at the rate, and in the currency, herein prescribed.

The Debentures are issuable as coupon Debentures, registrable as to principal, in the denominations of $1,000 and $100,000, and as registered Debentures without coupons in the denominations of $1,000 and any multiple of $1,000 authorized by the Company. Coupon Debentures and registered Debentures without coupons, and the several authorized denominations thereof, are interchangeable in equal aggregate principal amounts at the office or agency of the Company in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, and in the manner, subject to the limitations, and upon payment of the charges, provided in the Indenture.

The Debentures may not be redeemed before March 15, 1970, except as stated below. On and after that date and prior to maturity the Company may, at its option, redeem the Debentures, either as a whole or from time to time in part, upon not less than 30 days' notice, at their principal amount plus the following redemption premiums (expressed in percentages of principal amount) if redeemed during the twelve months period beginning March 15 in each of the following years:

Year	Redemption Premium	Year	Redemption Premium
1970.....	2.50%	1974.....	0.90%
1971.....	2.10	1975.....	0.50
1972.....	1.70	1976.....	0.25
1973.....	1.30

and thereafter at their principal amount without premium, together in each case with interest accrued to the date fixed for redemption. Under certain circumstances of declining retail receivables specified in the Indenture, the Debentures may be redeemed in the manner provided above on and after March 15, 1965 at their principal amount plus the following redemption premiums (expressed in percentages of principal amount) if redeemed during the twelve months period beginning March 15 in each of the following years:

Year	Redemption Premium	Year	Redemption Premium
1965.....	2.50%	1968.....	1.75%
1966.....	2.25	1969.....	1.50

and thereafter at their principal amount plus one-half the applicable redemption premium referred to in the next preceding table, or the redemption may be at their principal amount without premium together in each case with interest accrued to the date fixed for redemption; all upon the conditions set forth and as more fully provided in the Indenture.

This Debenture is transferable by the registered holder hereof or by his attorney duly authorized in writing at the office or agency of the Company in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, but only in the manner, subject to the limitations, and upon payment of the charges provided in the Indenture and upon surrender of this Debenture. Upon any such transfer a new registered Debenture or Debentures without coupons, of authorized denominations, for an equal aggregate principal amount will be issued to the transferee in exchange therefor.

The Company, the Trustee, any paying agent and any Debenture registrar may deem and treat the registered holder hereof as the absolute owner of this Debenture (whether or not this Debenture shall be overdue and notwithstanding any notation of ownership or other writing hereon made by anyone other than the Company or any Debenture registrar), for the purpose of receiving payment hereof or on account hereof and interest due hereon and for all other purposes, and neither the Company nor the Trustee nor any paying agent nor any Debenture registrar shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

No recourse under or upon any obligation, covenant or agreement contained in the Indenture or in any indenture supplemental thereto, or in any Debenture or coupon, or because of any indebtedness evidenced thereby, shall be had against any incorporator, or against any past, present or future stockholder, officer or director, as such, of the Company or of any successor corporation, either directly or through the Company or any successor corporation, under any rule of law, statute or constitutional provision or by the enforcement of any assessment or by any legal or equitable proceeding or otherwise, all such liability being expressly waived and released by the acceptance of this Debenture and as part of the consideration of its issuance.

Letter from James to the Duchess of Sutherland

Rye, Dec. 23rd, 1903.

Take, meanwhile pray, the Ambassadors ver, easily and gently:
read five pages a day—be even as deliberate as that—but don't break the thread. The thread is really stretched quite scientifically tight.
 Keep along with it step by step—and then the full charm will come out, I want the charm, you see, to come out for you—so convinced am I that it's there! Besides, I find that the very most difficult thing in the art of the novelist is to give the impression and illusion of the real lapse of time, the quantity of time, represented by our poor few phrases and pages, and all the drawing-out the reader can contribute helps a little perhaps the production of that spell.

Dear Mr. Powell:

This is to advise you that the First and Final Account in the Estate of Eleanor P. Jones has been filed in the office of the Clerk of the Orphans' Court of Lackawanna County, Pennsylvania. The Account shows a balance for distribution of $6,730.70. That amount will be reduced slightly in a Supplemental Account to be filed at the audit.

The audit is scheduled for Monday, March 8, 1982, at 10:00 A. M. in the Orphans' Court Room, Third Floor of the Court House, Scranton, Lackawanna County, Pennsylvania. It appears from the Account that the bequest to you in the amount of $500.00 in the Estate of Eleanor P. Jones will be paid in full. Unless you have some objection it will not be necessary for you to appear at the audit.

Very truly yours,

CLAY FEAT

Artist Vera Lightstone calls her fired clay sculpture "Mesozoic Totem," and, indeed, it does suggest the awesome skeletons of prehistory. The ten-foot-high assembly of winged and shell-like shapes has been part of a special exhibit at the American Museum of Natural History "The Museum and The Creative Artist." Now, it is throwing its soaring shadow on the walls of the Segal Gallery (formerly Good Company) and soon it could be bracketed to your very own wall. MESOZOIC TOTEM/ by Vera Lightstone/ Segal Gallery/339 Columbus Ave. (76)/724-7244/ Tues.-Sat., noon-7 p.m.

HANDS ON

Once upon a time, almost everything for your body or home was made by your neighborhood craftsperson. Yearly production ran in the tens, and quality control was otherwise known as pride. So here we are, two hundred and some years later, with the living proof that the more it changes, the more it remains the same.

QUILT COMPLEX

In pioneer days, a quilting bee was a day-long affair to which neighbors came from miles around to "set" a quilt. Cut to the Upper West Side, 1982, to the Manhattan Quilters' Guild, ten neighbors who come from blocks around to set their individual creations: custom-designed, one-of-a-kind contemporary quilts or reproductions of traditional patterns. You can choose from an infinite variety of quilt patterns; some of our favorites are New York Beauty, Star Of The West, and Ice Cream Bowl.

Dear SRP:

It is a sunny noon in Paris. Days start in an overcast fashion here, because the Seine has created a shallow valley, but most days in the last week the haze gives way to clear weather. Yesterday the weather was ~~a~~ changeable & superb; as I crossed the bridge from the Left Bank to the Louvre, under ~~an~~ a clouded, grey sky the hill of Montmartre & its church were illuminated by the whitest light. It sprinkled lightly ~~from~~ two times, never hard enough to obliterate the number of individual drops on the sidewalk. It was a waste of effort to have carried my French umbrella, and I did leave it - by accident - in a messidor.

I am having a very good time. Today I am taking it easy. My feet are blistered from all the walking I have done, which has probably taken me to most, though not all of Paris's arrondissements. I am sitting in Margy & Richard's living room as I write this, with a pot of Fanchon's "Fanchon Blend" tea, Claudine's African spinning out Chopin's Etude on the stereo, Richard's African violet collection in the next room - they needed a larger apartment to obtain a room for the plants - and a light, sunny breeze pushing through the open windows. I'm waiting for Richard's arrival from Germany, at 2 o'clock, just one day prior to my own departure for a 4-5 days in Barcelona, a trip I will postpone for a day if the travel agency tells me that I can obtain a seat on the  $\frac{5}{2}$  flight, changing from 8/14.

Yesterday, as you can tell from the enclosed postcard which is the impetus for this letter, because it ~~could not~~ pointed to topics rather than doing justice to them, I spent the afternoon at Pre-lachaise. In the evening, I went with Maguy to the American Embassy where she picked up the paycheck for her office (she works for the American Cultural Center Fielding questions from the French public about life in the US & A) — they are paid in cash, and the French gov't must accept an estimate, not a full accounting, I might add, for income tax purposes — and where I presented my passport as ID in order to get in, which received a smart "Thank you, sir!" in exchange. I have enjoyed kidding Maguy about getting my money's worth out of her labor, as a taxpayer, and she with pleasant whisked me into the Embassy xerox room to photocopy the page from the English Michelin guide to Paris with the map of Pre-lachaise, & some of its more famous inhabitants. I informed her that, in English, we say, w/ regard to cemeteries, that people are dying to get in, and we agreed that, even across languages, it was a cheap joke.

I escorted her via Métro to her office on Rue de Dragon, just 2 blocks from ~~Palais~~ Poilâne, an incredibly good boulangerie, famous throughout Paris (and near an equally good cheese store, whose wares we had for dinner last night), closed some traveler's checks around the corner at Barclay's (no fee, since I have Barclay's-VISA checks, which I obtained for free ~~at home~~ at home), and headed for the cemetery.

Of course, a few blocks from the bank, and mere steps out of my way, I stopped in at A La Vieille France, a splendid patisserie & located ~~at~~ in un marché on Rue du Bœuf, one block off Boul. de Saint Germain des Prés, where I bought two little tarts, one w/ lemon cream, the other w/ raspberry jam, to fortify my walk. From there to the Seine, ~~then~~ crossing at Le Louvre, which was surrounded by a super ~~camp~~ camp of tourist buses, and from there to l'Opera, to look at the price of pesetas in a money exchange that I passed earlier in the week, ~~instead~~ which sells $ as well as buys foreign currency. I stopped in a Spanish bank instead, learned that it's better to buy pesetas in France from a bank officer whose Spanish was heavily inflected w/ French, but that only French nationals and foreigners w/ residence permits may buy ~~there~~ Foreign currency. Unless Richard or Mary can ~~be~~ accompany me, doubtless since I am leaving for Spain this weekend, I ~~will~~ will have to wait ~~for~~ until I arrive in Barcelona to obtain money to "tour" (fr. the word "tourist") with.

From l'Opera I walked to Pere-Lachaise ~~via~~ La Gare de l'Est, Boulevard Malesherbes & Place de la République (with a 20 minute detour 4550 through the Paris version of Orchard Street (near des Petits Thouars), turn along Avenue de la République to Père Lachaise.

Well, I must say that I never expected to take so long to get to the main point.

After an hour's break, napping, reading, listening, even munching — I will have to assume an even stricter regimen when I get home in order to make up for my ongoing dietary indiscretions — I shall try to resume.

I can only say that I wish I had the pleasure of your company while walking through the cemetery. I recall your ~~to~~ telling of a visit to a cemetery in Europe immediately upon your ~~first~~ arrival there, and an emotional visit to a grave site, but I don't remember the details.
My first stop in P-L was the old Jewish cemetery, from the late 18th - early 20th century.
A large spotted spider had woven an imperceptible web in the small, upright crypt (right term? I don't know.) of which there were many examples all over in all corners of the cemetery but the newest. Many of them had been broken into, or, at least, their doors had fallen open, and left open in neglect. Some were vandalized, the their stained glass ~~broken~~ shattered, and others not, their windows intact and many old objects still in place, even ~~the~~ the door ajar. There was one window given to a girl, her photograph transferred to porcelain, also sent in note to Novakowitz. This was indeed an old part of the cemetery. The trees were not and admitted no light, ~~even so~~ even on a day like yesterday, with its beautiful, changeable sky, the atmosphere was one of, as they say, 'unbearable' gloom, or, perhaps, quiet, guarded seriousness.

Next to this section, surrounded by an iron fence, is the tomb of Abailard and Heloise. It is one of the grandest monuments on the grounds, with an ample plot enclosed with the fence, and stone sepulchres for each, ~~each lying in~~ Abailard & Heloise each lying in stone effigy on respective canisters, and a stone ~~pariet~~ pavilion over their heads, as if the shade trees were not enough. There is a touching inscription: [verbatim transcription]

Pierre Abailard fondateur de cet abbaye vivoit dans la douzieme siecle, il se distingua par la profondeur de son savoir et par la rareté de son mérite cependant il publia un traité de la trinité qui fut condamné par un concile tenu à Soissons en 1120. Il se retracta aussitôt par une soumission parfaite et pour témoigner ~~qu'il~~ qu'il n'avoit que des sentimens orthodoxes il fit faire de cette seule pierre ces trois figures qui représentent les trois personnes divines dans une nature. In writing this out, I notice that the tomb was consecrated precisely 262 years before

From the tomb I went to ~~start~~ the ruins

IT HAVING BEEN

- my idea to take a photograph of the flag
- my idea to write an article for the paper about the flag
- many of my ideas about what should be included in the article
- my time and money and energy to make the photograph and get it to you on time

I FIND THAT YOUR FAILURE TO GIVE ME ANY CREDIT is typical of your selfish manner.

You blatantly borrow from others without giving credit to anyone but yourself.

You have always done this to me, and I suspect you do it to others.

And I will always hate you for it.

If I could believe that you don't know any better it would be easier to swallow, but I know you know better.

New Carbondale flag created

By S. ROBERT POWELL
In May 1982, a Carbondale city flag was designated by S. Robert Powell and sewn by Ann Swindlehurst Powell. The design of this flag, shown here, is as follows: a white circle in the middle of a blue circle centered in a horizontal rectangle of white; at the center of the white circle are a crossed pickaxe and shovel (in black) above three chunks of burning anthracite coal (the coal is blue, the flames are red); the year "1851" is given (in black letters) on the white circle, one half of that date to the left of the central image, and the other half to the right of the central image; at the circumference of the blue circle are the following words (in white): "City of Carbondale Pennsylvania Incorporated."

This flag was presented to Mayor Fred J. Mancuso by S. Robert Powell, on behalf of the Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall, at the Dignitaries' Luncheon at 11 a.m. on August 28, 1982 in Carbondale Area High School. Later that day, the Carbondale city flag was carried in the Fourth Annual Pioneer Days parade by John V. Buberniak and Donald W. Powell, representing the Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall.

The design of this flag is derived from three sources. First, the original seal of the city of Carbondale -- a crossed pickaxe and shovel in the center of a circle, at the circumference of which are the following words: "Carbondale City Seal." This seal, which was discovered, in 1893, in the depths of the vaults in City Hall, was most probably designed in 1851 when the city of Carbondale was incorporated. This seal was made by the veteran Carbondale cabinet maker, J.F. Kinback, out of a block of lignum vitae, and was stamped upon all official documents of the city. A line engraving of this seal was published on page 6 of "The Carbondale Ledger" of June 10, 1893.

The design of this flag is derived, secondly, from the official seal for Carbondale's 125th Anniversary and America's Bicentennial. Represented on the front of this circular seal, which was designed by Gary Lopera, are a crossed pickaxe and shovel, above three chunks of burning anthracite coal. At the circumference of this side of seal is the following text: "Carbondale - Pennsylvania - 1851 1976 - Home of Anthracite Coal - Birthplace of Modern Energy." In the center of the back of this seal is a representation of Carbondale's 1892-1894 City Hall, with the words "City Hall" given at the base of the front of the building. At the circumference of the circle are the following words: "America's Bicentennial 1776-1976 Carbondale - 125 Years." The front and back of this medal are pictured on the inside front and inside back covers, respectively, of the Carbondale Commemorative Booklet that was published in 1976 (written in part and edited by Jerry Palko; layout by Ray Rinaldi and Jerry Palko; design and graphics by John Uram; printing by Cassaro-Uram Advertising and Printing).

The design of the Carbondale city flag is derived, thirdly, from a modified version of the front of the medal that was struck on the occasion of Carbondale's 125th Anniversary and America's Bicentennial. It is this modified design (a pickaxe and shovel crossed above three chunks of burning anthracite coal in the center of a circle, all superimposed on a second circle at the circumference of which are the following words: "City of Carbondale Pennsylvania Incorporated 1851") that was adopted by Carbondale City Council, in 1976, as the official seal of the city of Carbondale.

In 1901, as in 1976, a Carbondale medal was struck. On the front of the 1901 medal is the following inscription: "1851 - Semicentennial - Of - Carbondale - The Anthracite City - Sept. 1-4, 1901." On the back of this 1901 medal is presented the seal of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

DWP:

A large portion, if not all, of the hate that you directed to me in your letter of October 5, 1982 should be directed to Phil Heth.

Please read the photograph caption on the "Flag" article in the copy that I sent to Heth on September 3rd.

CARBONDALE'S FLAG

By

S. Robert Powell

In May 1982, a Carbondale city flag was designed by S. Robert Powell and sewn by Ann Swindlehurst Powell. The design of this flag, shown here, is as follows: a white circle in the middle of a blue circle centered in a horizontal rectangle of white; at the center of the white circle are a crossed pickaxe and shovel (in black) above three chunks of burning anthracite coal (the coal is blue, the flames are red); the year "1851" is given (in black letters) on the white circle, one half of that date to the left of the central image and the other half to the right of the central image; at the circumference of the blue circle are the following words (in white): "CITY OF CARBONDALE PENNSYLVANIA INCORPORATED."

This flag was presented to Mayor Fred J. Mancuso by S. Robert Powell, on behalf of the Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall, at the Dignitaries' Luncheon at 11 A.M. on August 28, 1982 in Carbondale Area High School. Later that day, the Carbondale city flag was carried in the Fourth Annual Pioneer Days parade by John V. Buberniak and Donald W. Powell, representing the Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall.

The design of this flag is derived from three sources. First, the original seal of the city of Carbondale--a crossed pickaxe and shovel in the center of a circle, at the circumference of which are the following words: "CARBONDALE CITY SEAL." This seal, which was discovered, in 1893, in the depths of the vaults in City Hall, was most probably designed in 1851 when the city of Carbondale was incorporated. This seal was made by the veteran Carbondale cabinet maker, J. F. Kinback, out of a block of lignum vitae, and was stamped upon all official documents of the city. A line engraving of this seal was published on page 6 of THE CARBONDALE LEADER of June 10, 1893.

The design of this flag is derived, secondly, from the official seal for Carbondale's 125th Anniversary and America's Bicentennial. Represented on the front of this circular seal, which was designed by Gary Lapera, are a crossed pickaxe and shovel, above three chunks of burning anthracite coal. At the circumference of this side of the seal is the following text: "CARBONDALE / PENNSYLVANIA / 1851 1976 / HOME OF ANTHRACITE COAL / BIRTHPLACE OF MODERN ENERGY." In the center of the back of this seal is a representation of Carbondale's 1892-1894 City Hall, with the words "CITY HALL" given at the base of the front of the building. At the circumference of the circle are the following words: "AMERICA'S BICENTENNIAL 1776-1976 CARBONDALE -- 125 YEARS." The front and back of this medal are pictured on the inside front and inside back covers, respectively, of the CARBONDALE COMMEMORATIVE BOOKLET that was published in 1976 (written in part and edited by Jerry Palko; layout by Ray Rinaldi and Jerry Palko; design and graphics by John Uram; printing by Cassaro-Uram Advertising and Printing).

The design of the Carbondale city flag is derived, thirdly, from a modified version of the front of the medal that was struck on the occasion of Carbondale's 125th Anniversary and America's Bicentennial. It is this modified design (a pickaxe and shovel crossed above three chunks of burning anthracite coal in the center of a circle, all superimposed on a second circle at the circumference of which are the following words: "CITY OF CARBONDALE PENNSYLVANIA INCORPORATED 1851") that was adopted by Carbondale City Council, in 1976, as the official seal of the city of Carbondale.

In 1901, as in 1976, a Carbondale medal was struck. On the front of the 1901 medal is the following inscription: "1851 / SEMICENTENNIAL / OF / CARBONDALE / THE ANTHRACITE CITY / SEPT. 1-4, 1901." On the back of this 1901 medal is presented the seal of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Dec. 1.

Dear Robert,

You might possibly have tried to contact me and failed, so I am sending just a note to let you know that it wasn't because there was a dispute over my role as chief, but because I was a bit upset over the tribe in Danville.

On Sun. night I had a call from Gertrude in Beis. Hospital. She'd had an accident, and was in need of help, so here I am. A woman had driven out in front of her at an intersection, and a crash was inevitable. It was such a shock to me, I could not think at all, but the outcome is I packed enough things for a week - leaving what I do need in Carbondale - Beth drove down - her mother drove my car, so I'd have one to use, and here I am.

EPILOGUE

Dear Reader:

An epilogue in the form of a letter seems appropriate at the conclusion of this collection of over 4,500 pages of letters received by S. Robert Powell in the period 1958–1982.

I am at present making a concerted effort to have all of my personal papers microfilmed. Here is a list of what has already been filmed:

1. Opus 40 of S. Robert Powell, October 13, 1981—May 7, 1984.
Six rolls of 35 millimeter microfilm.

Four supplements to Opus 40, each of which consists of one roll of 35 millimeter microfilm:

Supplement No. 1: May 8, 1984—October 7, 1984

Supplement No. 2: October 8, 1984—June 21, 1985

Supplement No. 3: June 22, 1985—March 20, 1986

Supplement No. 4: March 21, 1986—December 31, 1986

These ten rolls of microfilm of Opus 40 of S. Robert Powell are a record of my life from January 15, 1975, when, seated in the Music Room at the Bobst Library at New York University, I began writing PARADE HARMONIES: A DIALECTICAL SELF-PORTRAIT (written in the period 01-15-1975—07-15-1975; published on 08-15-1975), up to December 31, 1986, when, seated at my marble-top table at Elkdale, I celebrated the arrival of the new year. Contained on Rolls 1-6, among many other documents, are all of the published issues of NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA (Volume I, Number 1, August 15, 1979—Volume IV, Number 1, August 18, 1982).

2. The Renaissance and Cubist Conceptions of Space and Art in the Nineteenth-Century French Novel by S. Robert Powell. This is my doctoral dissertation. It was published by University Microfilms, Ann Arbor, Michigan, in 1974. The microfilm that I have is a copy of the original 35 millimeter microfilm that is owned by Xerox University Microfilms. In many respects, my doctoral dissertation and Comparative Aesthetics: A Workbook are the end products of all my formal academic training. They represent/constitute, therefore, a self-portrait for the period 1961–1978.

3. Comparative Aesthetics: A Workbook by S. Robert Powell. Published in 1978; one roll of 16 millimeter microfilm.

4. Proceedings of the Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall, Inc. and the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum, Inc., November 1981—March 1983. Organized and published under the direction of S. Robert Powell; one roll of 16 millimeter microfilm.

5. Northeastern Pennsylvania Genealogical and Local History Reprints, Volume I (1981) and Volume II (1982). Organized and published under the direction of S. Robert Powell. Sixteen millimeter microfilm; also published in hard cover.

6. Preparatory Notes for a Work to be Entitled "Walter Silas Powell and Helen Loomis Russell: Their Ancestors, Their Descendants" by S. Robert Powell. Published in hard cover on November 24, 1978. This hard-cover edition covers my genealogical research in the period 11-25-1976—11-23-1978. On 07-14-1985, this work was published on microfilm (12 microfiche cards). The microfiche edition includes my research for the period 11-24-1978—07-14-1985. Copies of the microfilm edition were presented as Christmas presents in 1985 to many members of the family.

7. Sheffield Publications, Inc., Carbondale, PA 18407 Complete External History of the Corporation by S. Robert Powell. Five microfiche cards; this is the company that I created to publish the historical quarterly, Northeastern Pennsylvania, as well as Northeastern Pennsylvania Genealogical and Local History Reprints.

8. 1987 Journal of S. Robert Powell of Carbondale (Lackawanna County) and Elkdale (Susquehanna County), PA. Eleven microfiche cards.

9. 1988 Journal of S. Robert Powell of Carbondale (Lackawanna County) and Elkdale (Susquehanna County), PA. Twenty-six microfiche cards.

10. 1989 Journal of S. Robert Powell of Carbondale (Lackawanna County) and Elkdale (Susquehanna County), PA. Twenty-two microfiche cards.

11. 1990 Journal of S. Robert Powell of Carbondale (Lackawanna County) and Elkdale (Susquehanna County), PA. Twenty-four microfiche cards.

12. 1991 Journal of S. Robert Powell of Carbondale (Lackawanna County) and Elkdale (Susquehanna County), PA. Twenty-two microfiche cards.

13. 1992-1998 Journal of S. Robert Powell, Carbondale (Lackawanna County), PA. Ninety microfiche cards.

14. Personal Papers, 1943-1970, of S. Robert Powell, Carbondale (Lackawanna County), PA. Twenty microfiche cards.

15. Poultry Papers, 1988-1995, of S. Robert Powell, Carbondale (Lackawanna County), PA. Thirteen microfiche cards.

16. Poultry Papers, 1996-1997, of S. Robert Powell, Carbondale (Lackawanna County), PA. Sixteen microfiche cards.

17. Poultry Papers, 1998, of S. Robert Powell, Carbondale (Lackawanna County), PA. Nine microfiche cards.

18. Flying Tippler Papers in the Collection of S. Robert Powell, Carbondale (Lackawanna County), PA. Twenty-eight microfiche cards.

Several additional microfilm projects are in preparation, including:

1. Personal Papers, 1971-1981, of S. Robert Powell, Carbondale (Lackawanna County) PA

2. An updated edition of Preparatory Notes . . .

3. Additional genealogical and local history reprints

April 20th (today) is an important day for me for at least two reasons: (1) in 1983, on this day, I moved back to Pennsylvania, from New York City, to live, and (2) in 1994, on this day, Dad died, at 11:05 P.M.

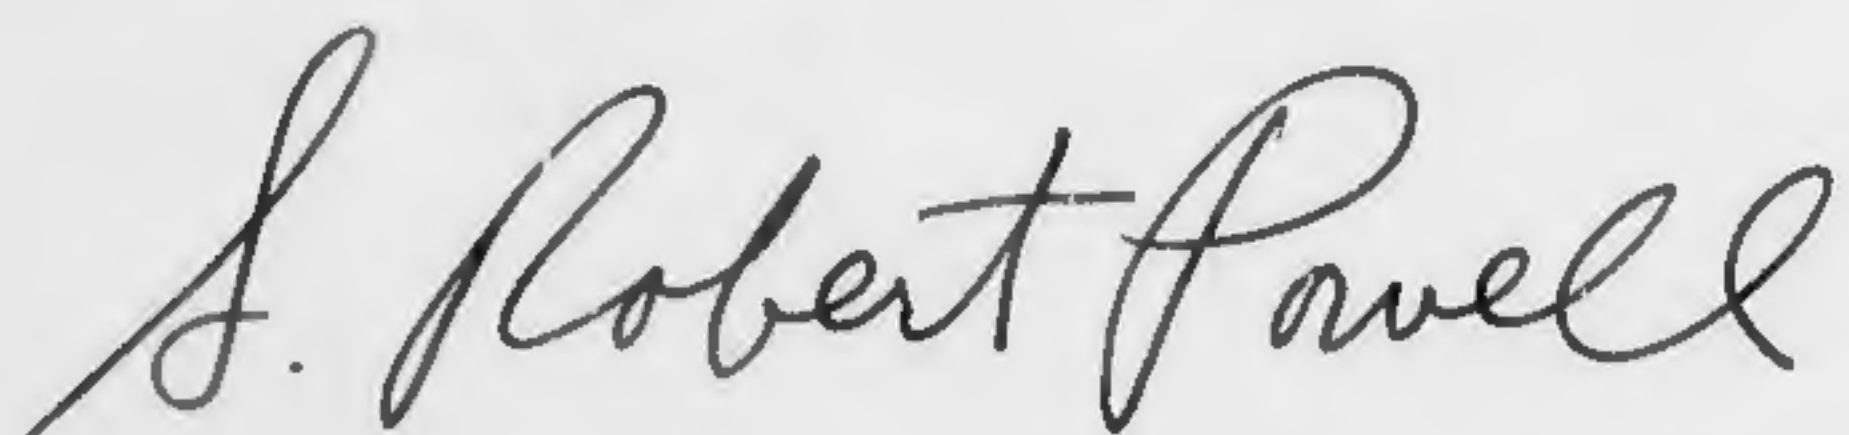

There are, in these letters, many that Mom wrote to me over the years. To re-read those letters and to think about her at present (age 85, in good physical health but not mentally acute, and confined to a wheel chair) is a remarkable stimulus to action. I think about what she once was and all that she once did, and I think about her present state. The lesson, of course, especially when it comes to such things as personal papers (which mean a great deal to me) is this: Don't put off til tomorrow what you can do today.

And so:

... "Come, my friends,
'T is not too late to seek a newer world.
Push off, and sitting well in order smite
The sounding furrows; for my purpose holds
To sail beyond the sunset, and the baths
Of all the western stars, until I die.
It may be that the gulfs will wash us down:
It may be we shall touch the Happy Isles,
And see the great Achilles, whom we knew.
Tho' much is taken, much abides; and tho'
We are not now that strength which in old days
Moved earth and heaven, that which we are, we are:
One equal temper of heroic hearts,
Made weak by time and fate, but strong in will
To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.
(last 15 lines of Tennyson's Ulysses)

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "S. Robert Powell". The signature is fluid and elegant, with a large initial "S" and a long, sweeping underline.
